

AGBU 100 th anniversary was held in Yerevan- Armenia.

+AGBU 100 th. Anniversary was held in Yerevan- Armenia. This ceremony was the 3 rd part of splendid anniversary. The beginning celebrated on April 2006 in Cairo-Egypt. 2 nd ceremony was held on October 2006 in France and the last celebration took place on Easter in Yerevan. The program included different conferences, seminars and brief explanation of AGBU's future plans. Iran's AGBU scouts and YP head and board members took part in this anniversary and had several meetings retold their cute memories of scout's annual camping

+AGBU New York branch board members had meeting with Armenia's governors, and at the end, each country took a memorial in an iron box called time capsule and buried in St. Ejmiatsin's place which was sacrelized by Armenian's grand bishop St. Garegin, hoping this union will be established for decades.100 years later the future AGBU members will open these capsules so, they'll find out how their predecessors were acting in our time.
