

+On April 24th, Iranian Armenians like their brothers and sisters in all over the world gathered to memorialize 1915's tragedy and many innocent people who died for no reason. Although there was no walking tour this year, AGBU scouts and YPs like many Armenians attended in St. Sargis church and round the area to show their protest and unity to Turkish government. A new slogan was heard "Hrand Dink, we're your followers" Terror of Hrand Dink, a new event in 2006 once more confirmed genocide of Armenians

+It was printed on banners: "1,5 million + 1" indicating number of our martyrs. The ceremony held around 4 hours and Iranian Armenian's grand bishop St. Sebooh and north Armenian's representative of parliament, "Gevorg Vardanian" made their speech of the day. Once again the manifesto was approved by people to make Turkish government accept the reality of Armenian's genocide. At the end, the national anthem of "Sardarabad" was song.

April 24 at AGBU

+Every year AGBU branch of Tehran memorializes April 24th:

The program of this year arranged by scouts and YP's, was held on May 4th at AGBU's place. There was AGBU's board of directors, women group representatives, members of union and their families. In the welcome speech, AGBU's activities concerning the justice of April 24th genocide as well as improvement of Armenia and Ghrabagh were reported.

+Program continued by a recite of Armenian poet Arpi Alexandrian dedicated to Armenian's genocide. There were also choir and monologues and dances presented by scouts and YP members. At the end theatre group was greatly applauded by audiences. AGBU members will move forward till the Turkish government accept and respect our of rights. We'll walk through Ararat Mountains. It's our duty as Armenians to keep our nations light on.
